Key indicator 1: The engagement of all pupils in regular physical activity

Intent Your school focus should be clear about what you want pupils to know, be able to do and learn through practice.	Implementation Make sure your actions to achieve are linked to your intentions.	Funding allocated	Impact / evidence of impact What do pupils now know and what can they now do? What has changed?	Sustainability and suggested next steps
To increase opportunities for all pupils to be physically active throughout the school day and develop positive attitudes towards physical activity and healthy lifestyles. Provision is inclusive and accessible to pupils with SEND, pupils with complex needs and pupils who may have less access to organised sport outside school.	- Aston Villa Foundation provided structured lunchtime activities to increase purposeful physical activity and encourage a wider range of pupils to participate. - After-school football clubs were provided for girls and boys, increasing opportunities for regular physical activity beyond curriculum PE. - Targeted physical-development sessions were provided for Reception pupils, focusing on fine motor skills, coordination and the physical foundations needed for learning. - Adaptive sports provision supported pupils with SEND to participate successfully. Additional specialist support was provided for pupils in the St Ambrose Room. - myHappyMind supported pupils' understanding of the relationship between physical activity, healthy lifestyles and positive mental wellbeing.	£8,308.00 Aston Villa Foundation: £5,920.00 myHappyMind: £2,388.00	- Pupils had increased opportunities to be physically active within and beyond the school day. - Structured lunchtime provision gave pupils regular purposeful activity rather than relying solely on self-directed playground activity. - Girls and boys accessed additional football provision. - Reception pupils developed physical skills through targeted activities supporting fine motor control, coordination and readiness for learning. - Pupils with SEND and complex needs were increasingly included in meaningful physical activity matched to their individual starting points and needs. - After-school dance clubs provided by Adaptive Sports offered further opportunities for pupils across the school to take part in regular physical activity.	- Monitor participation and physical fitness across all pupils throughout the year, tracking progress over time and identifying pupils or groups who are less active, under-represented or making less progress, so that provision can be targeted appropriately. - Build on adaptive sports training so inclusive practice is embedded within everyday PE provision.

Key indicator 2: The profile of PESSPA being raised across the school as a tool for whole-school improvement

Intent Your school focus should be clear about what you want pupils to know, be able to do and learn through practice.	Implementation Make sure your actions to achieve are linked to your intentions.	Funding allocated	Impact / evidence of impact What do pupils now know and what can they now do? What has changed?	Sustainability and suggested next steps
To raise the profile of PE, sport and physical activity so pupils recognise the importance of being active and see sport as an important part of school life. Use PE and sport to support confidence, resilience, teamwork, inclusion, positive relationships and wellbeing.	• Fourteen new gym mats were purchased to improve the quality and safety of gymnastics provision and ensure pupils had appropriate equipment. • The school continued its Get Set 4 PE subscription, providing a structured, progressive PE curriculum and resources to support consistent provision. • Aston Villa Foundation provision, lunchtime activities and after-school clubs increased the visibility of sport across the school (cost allocated under K11). • Pupils were given opportunities to represent St Chad's at sporting events, including MAC events. • Inclusive and adaptive provision ensured pupils with SEND and complex needs were represented within the school's sporting offer.	£1,495.61 Gym mats: £939.86 Get Set 4 PE: £555.75	• PE and sport remained a visible and valued part of school life. • Improved equipment supported safe, high-quality participation in gymnastics. • A clear PE curriculum supported consistency and progression across year groups. • Pupils developed confidence, teamwork, resilience and positive relationships through sport. • Inclusive provision reinforced the message that sport and physical activity are for everyone.	• Continue to celebrate participation, effort, improvement, teamwork and sporting values. • Continue to develop structured lunchtime physical activity and widen the range beyond football. • Develop pupil leadership opportunities within PE and sport. • Monitor participation to identify groups who are under-represented and target provision accordingly.

Key indicator 3: Increased confidence, knowledge and skills of all staff in teaching PE and sport

Intent Your school focus should be clear about what you want pupils to know, be able to do and learn through practice.	Implementation Make sure your actions to achieve are linked to your intentions.	Funding allocated	Impact / evidence of impact What do pupils now know and what can they now do? What has changed?	Sustainability and suggested next steps
To improve staff confidence, knowledge and skills so all pupils receive high-quality PE and physical activity. Develop staff expertise in inclusive and adaptive PE so pupils with SEND and complex needs can participate successfully and make progress from their individual starting points.	• Adaptive Sports provided specialist CPD and support, including practical approaches to adapting activities, equipment and teaching for pupils with SEND. • Bespoke CPD and specialist support was provided for staff working in the St Ambrose Room, developing confidence in high-quality physical activity for pupils with complex needs. • Aston Villa Foundation provided staff CPD and opportunities to work alongside specialist coaches through modelling, observation and practical application (cost allocated under KI1). • Reception staff were supported through targeted physical-development sessions, observing strategies that develop fine motor skills, coordination and physical development. • Staff were encouraged to apply strategies modelled by specialists within their own PE teaching and wider physical-activity provision.	£3,920.00 Adaptive Sports provision / CPD	• Staff increased their confidence in planning and delivering PE and physical activity. • Teachers developed a wider range of strategies for adapting activities so pupils with differing needs can participate successfully. • Staff developed greater understanding of inclusive PE and how equipment, expectations and support can be adapted appropriately. • St Ambrose staff increased confidence in delivering appropriate physical activity for pupils with complex needs. • Working alongside specialists enabled staff to observe high-quality practice and apply strategies within their own teaching.	• Continue to use the knowledge and strategies gained through CPD and specialist modelling. • Identify individual staff development needs and provide targeted PE CPD. • Embed adaptive teaching approaches so inclusive practice becomes part of everyday provision. • Continue to develop St Ambrose staff expertise so high-quality physical activity can increasingly be sustained internally. • Use the PE Lead to share effective practice and monitor how professional development is translated into teaching.

Key indicator 4: Broader experience of a range of sports and physical activities offered to all pupils

Intent Your school focus should be clear about what you want pupils to know, be able to do and learn through practice.	Implementation Make sure your actions to achieve are linked to your intentions.	Funding allocated	Impact / evidence of impact What do pupils now know and what can they now do? What has changed?	Sustainability and suggested next steps
To provide pupils with opportunities to experience a broad range of sports and physical activities beyond usual curriculum PE. Ensure opportunities are accessible to girls, pupils with SEND and complex needs, and children who may have fewer opportunities to participate in organised sport outside school.	• Birmingham Royal Ballet Dance Track workshop broadened pupils' experience of dance. • Muddy Puddle Teacher outdoor learning resources supported active learning and physical experiences outdoors. • An Airhop trampoline-park experience provided an extended period of enjoyable physical activity in a different environment, developing coordination, balance, stamina and confidence. • Structured lunchtime activities and girls' and boys' football widened the extracurricular offer (Aston Villa costs allocated under K11). • Adaptive sports and St Ambrose provision widened access to appropriately adapted physical activities (cost allocated under K13). • Adaptive Sports also provided after-school dance clubs for pupils across different age groups throughout the year, widening the range of extracurricular physical activities available and giving pupils regular opportunities to develop coordination, movement, confidence and enjoyment through dance. • Reception pupils accessed targeted physical-development activities focusing on coordination, movement and fine motor development.	£1,355.00 Birmingham Royal Ballet: £170.00 Muddy Puddle Teacher: £450.00 Airhop: £435.00 Airhop transport: £300.00	• Pupils experienced physical activity through curriculum PE, lunchtime and after-school provision, targeted sessions, outdoor activity and external experiences. • More pupils were able to find activities in which they could participate successfully and enjoy being active. • Girls had increased opportunities to participate in football. • Pupils with SEND and complex needs accessed a wider range of appropriately adapted physical activities. • After-school dance provision enabled pupils across a range of ages to access an additional form of physical activity beyond curriculum PE, broadening participation and providing an alternative for children who may be less interested in traditional team sports. • Airhop gave pupils access to a sustained active experience that many may not otherwise have experienced.	• Develop the after-school provision to offer a greater variety of sports and physical activities across the year, providing pupils with opportunities to experience activities beyond the current offer and encouraging a wider range of children to participate. • Use participation information and pupil voice to identify activities pupils would like to experience and groups not currently accessing provision. • Continue to develop adaptive and inclusive sporting opportunities. • Build staff confidence so successful activities introduced by specialists can be sustained by school staff. • Seek further partnerships that broaden pupils' experiences and provide good value for Sports Premium funding.
